

Diese Personalie ist mindestens so aufsehenerregend wie die des Gesundheitsministers – und fast schon unglaublich, dass diese Entscheidung tatsächlich getroffen wird, sagt Querdenkeranwalt Ralf Ludwig.

„Bhattacharya war einer der Mitunterzeichner der Great Barrington Declaration. Viele Stimmen sagen heute, dass man mit einer Orientierung an dieser Denkrichtung in der Covid-Krise vermutlich viel Leid und viele Todesfälle hätte verhindern können.“

Und auch wenn dies in Deutschland selbst vielleicht noch nicht möglich ist oder viel zu lange dauert, dürften die Erkenntnisse aus den Vereinigten Staaten auch in das sehr proamerikanische Deutschland schwappen und hier ihren ganz eigenen Druck entfalten.“

STATEMENT FROM PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP

I am thrilled to nominate Jay Bhattacharya, MD, PhD, to serve as Director of the National Institutes of Health. Dr. Bhattacharya will work in cooperation with Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to direct the Nation's Medical Research, and to make important discoveries that will improve Health, and save lives.

Jay is a Professor of Health Policy at Stanford University, a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economics Research, and a Senior Fellow by courtesy at the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research, Stanford Freeman Spogli Institute, and the Hoover Institution. He directs Stanford's Center for Demography and Economics of Health and Aging. His Research focuses on the Health and Well-Being of vulnerable populations, emphasizing the role of Government programs, Biomedical Innovation, and Economics. Jay is a co-author of the Great Barrington Declaration, an alternative to lockdowns proposed in October 2020. His peer-reviewed research has been published in Economics, Statistics, Legal, Medical, Public Health, and Health Policy Journals. He holds an MD and PhD in Economics from Stanford University.

Together, Jay and RFK Jr. will restore the NIH to a Gold Standard of Medical Research as they examine the underlying causes of, and solutions to, America's biggest Health challenges, including our Crisis of Chronic Illness and Disease. Together, they will work hard to Make America Healthy Again!
